Our merchants are making extensive preparations for the coming year.
Trade last year, 1892, was unusually good and they are expecting an increase this year. What the farmer has a commanding good price and money will be more plentiful.

A letter has been received from our friend Wm. Bridgeforth who is at Ocala, Florida enjoying the sunny south the land of flowers. The patrarchial appearance of our friend has changed and he is almost a boy again.

At the First Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning a petition was presented asking our Congressmen and representatives to use their influence in repealing "the Sunday closing law" to the act making the appropriate to the World's Fair.

again. He has employed Mr. J.
Horton to help him in making out lists a second time.

The World's Fair bill, after so long he has become a law. The legislature has passed it and Gov. Brown has given his assent to it. The commissioners have been reappointed with the exception of Mr. Young E. who declined to serve further.
Dr. James Representative from

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Emma Hammond of Paint Lick is visiting friends and relatives in this county.

Mr. C. S. Radliff and T. J. Jones of Bath were in town on business last week.

Mr. W. E. Bean who has been at Highland Kansas in the horse business for the past three months came home Friday evening for a month's stay.
He will go back about March 1st.

Misses Feuton and Lizzie Bigstaff, leave this morning for Knoxville to visit Mrs. William Wilson and family of F. L. Bosworth.

J. L. White was in Flemingsburg from Saturday till Monday. A lady even handsomer than "Larry" himself is said to be the attraction.

We are glad to state that our general young friend Mr. J. A. Withers has accepted a fine position with the well known firm of D. H. Baldwin Co. of Louisville. At present he is visiting friends and relatives in Bath county. By the way rumer has it that Mr.
Withers is soon to wed one of Louisville's handsomest young ladies.

E. C. Orear, and wife leave to-day to spend the rest of the winter in Florida.

Miss Nettie Priest, of Marston Wis. is visiting at S. P. Hunts.

M. T. Womack of West Liberty passed through the city yesterday on his way home from Frankfort where he had been on a business trip.

Col. Will Daugherty of Owingsville Bath county's efficient School Commissioner was in the city yesterday.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Great Gathering of the year in our Kentucky Young Men's Christian Association is the coming State Convention at Winchester, February 23-26, 1893. The most attractive and useful program yet offered at any of our Conventions is being arranged.

Among the good things confidently expected are Bible studies by one of the most successful teachers of the Bible in the country, and addresses by Messrs. Robert Weidensall and F. S.
Brockman, Secretaries of International Committee, Mr. D. A. Sinclair, of Dayton, Ohio, Mr. A. T. Stephens, of Illinois. Other prominent workers have been invited, besides these, a number of business men, college men and other workers from our own State will take part in the program. Rev.
Mark Collis, of Lexington, will deliver the opening address on, "What can our Young Men do for the State of Kentucky?" Prof. E. S. Fogg, assisted by a male chorus from the Covington Association, will lead the singing.

Now, in order to get the greatest possible benefit from the meeting for our Kentucky Associations, it will be necessary to have large delegations of our members present. With the reduced railroad rates and free entertainment, the cost will be small, and the money could be spared from the incidental expenses of the next few weeks. You will find this one of the best investments of time and effort you can make for the work of your Association. Therefore,

Note the dates of the State Convention.

Make up your mind to attend the State Convention

Become acquainted with 300 earnest young men at the State Convention.

Hear the reports concerning young men's work at the State Convention.

Listen to the inspiring music at the State Convention.

Get the benefit of the Bible Study at the State Convention.

Enjoy the addresses of prominent men at the State Convention.

Take part in the practical discussion of practical questions at the State Convention.

Then you will catch the inspiration and enthusiasm of the State Convention, and will always rejoice that you did not fail to attend the State Convention.

Dennis! Dennis!

On last Sunday morning one of our good farmers from the Judy neighborhood came to town with his working clothes on and on being met by a friend on the street who said to him:
"Why this is the first time I ever saw you here on Sunday, and what are you doing with those saddlebags today?" replied "I didn't know it was Sunday."

Mr. Edward B. Perry, of Boston, is certainly one of the few pianists of whom America can be justly proud.—

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Mr. Stanley Gallispie, of Bourbon county, to Miss Garrude Boyd, of this county, which is to take place at the residence of the brides father, W. A. Boyd on Wednesday evening next. A reception will be given then at the groom's home. We tender our congratulations to the happy young pair.

A young gallant, not far from here drove fifteen miles though huge snow drifts sometimes (according to his statement) the ears of his horse only being visible above the snow rather than disappoint his "lady love."

Messrs Henry and Cravens got their ears frozen while coming from a party a few nights since. They beg leave to say to the girl they are a little disfigured but still in the ring.

Old Red Buck and Trigger, two
